

Aimed at: This programme is for participants from all departments who want to enhance their online performance.

Trainers: Carr Communication, is a leader in communications, training, and consultancy.

Duration: 9am to 1pm - ½ day programme with 30mins allocated to each participant for pre-recordings on the day prior to training.

Price: €200 per person or €800 per company

Programme Overview:

This programme helps build participants self-confidence when presenting online from understanding online pitfalls, utilising online tools, handling general nerves and better preparation for an online presentation.

Learning Objectives:

- Identify and meet the needs of an online audience.
- Reach your objectives with your virtual presentation.
- Handle nerves.
- Understand methods to avoid online presentation pitfalls.
- Use PowerPoint effectively while online.
- Deliver successful presentations using online tools to your advantage.

Content:

- Agreeing criteria for effective online presentations.
- Record case studies.
- Creating audience focus.
- Create understanding.
- Online delivery issues.
- Online Visual Aids.
- Creating Impact Online.
- Agree future steps.

To book your place, or for more information, contact Mark Skinner on (01)
6051615 or mark.skinner@ibec.ie